NO WATER IMPOUNDMENTS

House Bill 1115, the Ipswich River Authority Bill, received a favorable report, from the Joint Water Resources Committee of the Massachusetts Legislature, Tuesday afternoon.

But an amendment, introduced by Rep. Fred F. Cain of Wilmington, was added, saying 'Nothing in this act shall authorize the construction of water impoundments in the Town of Wilmington.' The amendment was adopted before the committee unanimously voted for the report.

Stadium Voted

Six hundred and twenty-seven citizens of Wilmington, at the Special Town Meeting, Monday night, cast their votes in overwhelming approval of a Zoning By Law amendment and a Building By Law amendment to voice their acceptance of the much publicized $40 million stadium for Wilmington.

The opposition was a meager eighty-two.

Almost double the number at an annual Town Meeting, the voters dwelt perfunctorily with the four preceding articles on the six-article warrant, obviously impatient to reach what was, for them, the main business of the evening.

Only one person, Mrs Ruth Klitchener of Aldrich Road, took the microphone to speak against the amendment to the Zoning By-Law. At one point Mrs Klitchener, virtually drowned out by impatient grumblings from her audience, warned: 'You'd better listen!' The moderator, Simon Cutter, good-humoredly interjected 'Don't threaten them - I can handle them'

A YEAR, A WEEK AND A DAY

It was one year, one week and one day ago, on April Fools Day of 1965 that the Town Crier reported, on the front page, that oil had been found on the Bob Evans farm in North Wilmington, and also that US Army Engineers were considering a plan prepared by a Finnish engineer, Loof Lirpa by name, to revive the Middlesex Canal.

Both stories were accepted at face value by many of the readers of the Town Crier.

Further, the Town Crier, even with tongue in cheek, really did not realize what it was saying.

For today, one year, one week and one day later, both stories have in them more than a figment of imagination, by reason of legislative action.

Bob Evan's farm is now the property of Monte Green and associates, and Mr Green has the go-ahead from the Town of Wilmington to build a stadium, which, it can be argued, is one form of an oil well. All Mr Green has to do now is to get the money and get going.

And the Middlesex Canal is a step nearer being revived, by reason of the action of the Mass. Legislature's Joint Committee on Water Resources, this week.

Mr. Lirpa, it can be argued, turned out to be Representative Francis Hatch, of Beverly.

Mr. Hatch is not trying to sweeten the waters of the Charles River, but is most certainly trying to augment the waters of the Ipswich.

MRS DOROTHY SWEENEY was recently awarded a diploma, on graduation from Lee Institute, by Carl Sedgeley. She will be operating a real estate business from 409 Woburn Street, starting on April 12th.

TOWN NOTES

Grass is Green

The Crocus plants are crocusing and the Red Wing Blackbirds are singing down in the swamps. It is spring in Wilmington, and if you don't believe it just look at the grass on the front lawn, where it is turning green. Pretty soon you'll be out with the old lawnmower!

Sales Tax Question

Each and every storekeeper has a little problem about whether or not to charge a sales tax for a specific item.

For instance, if you tell a storekeeper that the fertilizer you buy is for the garden, he is not to charge a tax, as John Ella learned, but if the fertilizer is for the lawn a tax is now applicable, along with the fertilizer.

The question of the day, however, is at Seacraft, where Scuba Divers get their air tanks refilled to a pressure of about 2000 pounds to the square inch.

Should they, or should they not charge a tax. It isn't wearing material, or eating material, but all that it seems to be is the product of a machine, and hence can come under the heading of being a service charge, and hence is non-taxable.

The boys at Seacraft are scratching their heads.

Vietnam Service

Each week twelve copies of the Town Crier are mailed to Wilmington boys who have an address with the APO San Francisco phrase being a prominent part. Not all these boys are serving in Vietnam, some being, for instance, in Okinawa, but more than two or three Wilmington boys are in that country of cute little dolls, and plastic bomb throwers.

Among those who are in Vietnam are Major Richard Montgomery and Capt. Donald Farnham, the latter now serving his second tour of duty in that country. He is a helicopter pilot.

And Allan Park is well known to the Town Crier readers. He is the boy who went up to Hong Kong on a recreational visit, and got free hosting at the Park Hotel, because of his name. Allan gets the Town Crier of the week before, on Monday - just four days to go more than half way around the world. His aunt is paying to send it airmail.

Buddy Zwicker was in Vietnam, with the US Marines, but is now in the Naval Hospital in Guam, recovering from wounds received in action. Buddy told his dad, this past weekend, by telephone, that he is going back to Vietnam as soon as he recovers.

How many more are there in that exotic sounding country? The

NO WATER IMPOUNDMENTS (from front page)

The hearing, Tuesday morning in the State House, saw the Town of Lynnfield Water District asking to get into the Ipswich River Authority, and the Town of Rockport asking to get out. Rene LaRivee, former Selectman of Wilmington asked that the committee eliminate all references to Middlesex County.

A total of 37 Wilmington residents were present in the hearing room, together with Miss Alice LeBauer, Civics teacher in Wilmington High School.

The chairman, Senator Francis X Wall of Lawrence, gallantly observed that Miss LeBauer did not appear to be any older than the pupils who were with her, several of whom spoke before the committee.

Senator Wall was most courteous to the Wilmington Students who were present - student Selectmen, School Committee, etc., elected in the program of the League of Women Voters. He assured Michael Cairra of Chestnut Street that 'he could speak for an hour' when Cairra was diffident about speaking before the legislative board, and he told Miss Fay D'Avignon, student selectman, that she could speak and that 'her father was a taxpayer'.

The hearing lasted one hour and three minutes and had Selectman Bender of Wilmington leading the fight against the proposal.

Broken Arm

Representative Francis Hatch of Beverly, appearing with his arm in a sling because of a skiing accident, told the Committee that nothing had been lost because the eminent domain provisions were being stricken from the bill, and that this was but the 'first step'.

Hatch said that the reporting date, in the bill, should be Jan. 1, 1967, and that 'the mantle had to be seized' by the proposed Ipswich River Committee because the work could not be done under state auspices alone.

John Pierce of the Ipswich River Council told the committee that it was necessary to start 'zeroing in' on the impoundment areas, and added that serious work had to be done about reactivating the old Middlesex Canal.

Representative Frank Tanner of Reading was among those who appeared in favor of the bill. He said that he hoped for a broad representation on the committee, and was willing to go along with the provisions.

John Rogers of the Lynnfield Center Water District told of the cooperation with North Reading and Peabody, in planning a billion gallon reservoir. The time had come, he said, to lay aside the needs of individual towns and cities, and to stop 'going alone'. He was very desirous of seeing that rights were protected, and recorded the Lynnfield Board of Selectmen as being unanimously in favor.

Among the officials who spoke in favor were Malcom Graf, executive director of the State Water Resources Commission, and George Coogan, of the State Board of Health. Paul N Howard, president of the firm of Whitman & Howard, consult ing engineers to, among others, the Wilmington Water Department said that, as a resident of Lynnfield he felt that the bill was necessary and most urgent. It would be necesrecorded against the bill. He was followed by Selectman Lloyd Bender, who noted that the previous speakers had spoken of 'zeroing in' on the impoundment areas.

REPRESENTATIVE FRANCIS HATCH, of Beverly, his arm in a sling as the result of a skiing accident, assured the chairman, Senator Wall that he did not suffer his injury on the streets of Wilmington. Selectman Lloyd Bender of Wilmington, not to be outdone, assured Hatch that he would be welcome in Wilmington at any time.

sary, Howard said, to see the divergence of some of the water in the Concord River into the canal and the Ipswich, and that the day 'was not far off'.

John C Callahan of Lynn, who spoke in favor, felt that it would be better to have a five man board, instead of three.

TOWN MEETING (From Front Page)

He quieted the audience sufficiently for Mrs Kitchener to state that the Zoning By Law change would leave the town 'wide open' for amusements in all General Business and Industrial areas.

Attorney Roland Wood, representing the New North of Boston Realty Corporation, which proposes to build the stadium, moved both the Zoning By-Law and the Building By-Law amendments. Wood stated the case for the stadium, citing the benefits of tax returns for the town and pointing to the thousands of dollars invested so far as evidence of serious intent.

Little persuasion was needed on Woods' part, as witnessed by the fact that he moved the first of the two articles at 8:45 pm and by 9:30 pm the crowd was pouring out the doors of the high school gymnasium with the meeting completed.

In his moving of the two articles Wood made changes in each. The Zoning By-Law amendment, which authorized a stadium or arena use in a General Business District, was expanded to specifically exclude vehicular or animal racing. Wood, in moving the Building By-Law amendment, made extensive additions and changes to accommodate objections to the original 'one parking space for each five seats' proposal.

YMCA SUMMER CAMP

Since last January the Woburn Branch of the YMCA has been offering extension course to the youths of Wilmington through its Wilmington Extension Committee. The courses have been enthusiastically received.

In an effort to expand the program the full camping facilities of the Boston YMCA have been opened to Wilmington residents. These include three resident camps for boys - North Woods Camp, Camp Ousamequin, and Camp Dorchester. There is also a family residence camp on Sandy Island at Lake Winnepesaukee. Locally two day camps are available, the Kiddie Camp for five and six year olds, and the Day Camp at Cabot Reservation in Waltham, for seven through twelve year olds.

Warren L McManus, Director of Camp Ousamequin and Edward Branigan of the local Y staff will present a special camping program, complete with slides, at the Methodist Church Wesley House, on Church Street, April 13th.

Parents and children interested in learning more about the YMCA camping are invited. Please call Mr Branigan to let him know if you are able to come - 935-3277. Reservations are not necessary.

Since leaving recruiting duty in 1960 Sergeant Sheehan has served as an Infantry operations chief with units of the First Marine Division in Southern California, and the Third Marine Division in Japan, Okinawa, the Philippines, and Thailand. Prior to being reassigned to recruiting duty Sergeant Sheehan was Guard Chief of a Marine Security unit at Las Vegas, Nevada.

Sgt. Sheehan is married to the former Dianne Hayward of South Boston and lives with his wife and seven children at 5 Oak Street in North Billerica.

Combined Church Census, May 1st

Nearly 500 workers from the the combined churches of Wilmington will take part, on Sunday May 1st, in a combined church census of Wilmington.

The event will be the first time that Catholics and Protestants have worked together in such a project. Each of the two sects of Christianity, in Wilmington, have in the past conducted a census of their own, but never before have they combined.

The census is to be conducted in a one hour count - between the hours of 1:30 pm and 2:30 pm, and it is hoped to have workers visit every home in Wilmington during that hour. Parishioners are being asked to be certain that one adult is home during that time, to answer questions, and are further being asked to stay home a little longer, in the event that the census taker is a little late - which is not expected to happen.

The questions are going to be very simple - merely the names of the households, and the religious affiliations.

Each of the five churches which are participating has a chairman, and the town has been divided into five areas, each with an area captain.

Chairman from St. Thomas is Peter Melchiono of Chapman Ave., chairman of St. Dorothy's is John Boeri of Lloyd Road, chairman of the First Baptist Church is Walter Sevensen of Middlesex Ave., chairman of the Congregational Church is Frank Tuttle of Carson Ave. and chairman of the Methodist Church is Bradford Case, of 3 Oakridge Circle.

The area captains are Homer Richards, Middlesex Ave., Hayward Bliss, Glen Road, Foster Balsar, Middlesex Ave., Gordon Lister of Woburn Street and Philip Andrews of Gunderson Road.

Selectmen's Meeting

More dogs than Republicans

The subject was 'dogs' at the Selectmen's meeting Tuesday night. The meeting had to be on Tuesday because of the special town meeting of the night before.

By the close of the evening the names 'Brandy' and 'Duchess' were as familiar as those of Bender and Drew. The owners of Brandy, Duchess, and Lady Margaret had been called before the board for discussion of a written complaint to the Board, lodged by Mr and Mrs George Clark of Chandler Road.

Present to speak in defense of their pets were Mr and Mrs Alan C Fenton (Brandy), Mrs Richard Thackery (Duchess) and Henry J Mutter (Lady Margaret).

Mr and Mrs Clark opened the discussion with a list of specific grievances against the dogs: Tipping over barrels, destruction of personal property, and other objectionable acts performed in the Clark's yard.

Selectman Bender read a letter from Town Counsel Alan I Altman outlining the powers of the Selectmen concerning the restraint of 'vicious and barking' dogs. During the course of the discussion it became apparent that the aforementioned dogs were neither vicious nor excessively barking, though admitted by all to have certain nuisance qualities.

The entire discussion threatened to end amicably once lines of communication were opened amongst the opposing parties.

Leo Barry, who said he was not called to the meeting, but came as an interested party since he was 'geographically located in the center of the three dogs' spoke as a character witness in their behalf.

Barry was not the only interested citizen to appear at the discussion. Mrs Frank McLean of Temple St. testified that Brandy was a frequent visitor in her yard. 'If I had Mr. there sometime when that 160 lb. dog of his jumps up to lick me in the face' she said, 'I'd probably strangle him.'

Mrs McLean said that it should be clarified that the law pertains only to vicious or excessively barking dogs, to prevent further such discussions before the Board of Selectmen. Bender agreed, saying that 'viciousness' was essential for a valid complaint. He added that he hoped further that such problems could be settled within the neighborhood, without recourse to the Board of Selectmen.

Messrs Fenton and Mutter and Mrs Thackery all agreed that in the future they would keep their dogs restrained on Monday, rubbish pick-up day. All agreed that they would do whatever they could to accommodate the Clarks in reference to their complaints against the dogs. Mr and Mrs Clark said they were willing to go half-way or more in settling the dispute.

When Bender asked Barry to serve as a neighborhood mediator for the dispute Barry replied: 'Thanks a Lot!'

The discussion ended with all parties on apparently good terms, but not before Selectman Niles pointed out to the board that 'There are more dogs than Republicans in town!'

Rene LaRivee

Former Selectman Rene LaRivee was appointed by acclamation to fill the vacancy on the Urban Redevelopment Authority, left vacant by the inability of Nicholas De Felice to accept due to the pressure of business in the trucking industry.

Gas Storage Permit

Bill Baldwin, of the Baldwin Steel company appeared before the board to request a permit for the underground storage of gasoline for his own equipment, at 200 Andover St. A public hearing was set for next Monday at 8:15 pm.

Library Construction

Chairman Bender called for a motion requesting the chairmen of the Planning Board, Finance Committee, Permanent Building Committee and the Board of Library Trustees to meet with the Selectmen next Monday night to work together to complete what has to be done to come up with a sound, acceptable library program to present to the community sometime this year.

The board was in hearty agreement with the suggestion, and the clerk was instructed to send letters informing the chairman of the various boards of the meeting.

Licenses

License renewals were granted to Aristide Brabant, for the operation of the North Wilmington Taxi and to Continental Trailer of Ballardvale Street. The license for the latter had been held up pending the appearance of the owner before the board to discuss the reported unsightly appearance of the grounds. Mrs Drew said she had visited the place the day before and could find nothing wrong, and Selectman Miceli had a similar report. The license was granted without further objection.

Building Advisory Committee

Louis E Gage and Ernest Jamison were unanimously appointed to serve on the Building Advisory Committee, in a status similar to the Board of Appeals, a committee made necessary by the new By-Laws of the town.

Fire Department

Selectman Miceli questioned the chairman regarding some reports coming to him, concerning the 'timing' of the Fire Department, and, as he said, a feeling of harassment among members of the Department in relation to brush fires.

Niles spoke up to say he had no complaints about the Fire Department.

Bender told Miceli that he felt it was the prerogative of anyone to time fire engines at any time. He said he had done it last week, when there was a brush fire near the home of Carlo Gubellini on Salem Street. The time for the engines, Bender said, was 6 1/2 minutes. When Bender repeated the trip himself in his own car, he told Miceli, he made it 4 1/2 minutes. Bender said that since he was

The Latest Draft of the Ipswich River Bill (House 1115)

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE PROTECTION AND OPTIMUM DEVELOPMENT OF THE WATER RESOURCES OF THE IPSWICH RIVER WATERSHED

WHEREAS, the deferred operation of this Act would tend to defeat its purpose, the immediate development of the water resources of the Ipswich River Watershed and related land uses, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the protection and development of the water resources and related land uses of the watershed.

Section 1. There is hereby established the Ipswich River Watershed District, hereinafter called the district, consisting of all the cities and towns within the watershed of the Ipswich River, plus the cities of Lynn, Peabody, Salem and Beverly now using water from said river, and the towns of Essex and Manchester and the city of Gloucester.

Section 2. There shall be a District Advisory Board consisting of a member of the Board of Selectmen or other person designated by the Selectmen of each of the towns who shall be water supply personnel in the district, a member from each water district in the region, and the Mayor of each of the said cities in the district, or his designee. The gentleman on the right is Douglas R Smith, one of the men who is employed in visiting the homes of Wilmington at the present time, making the reassessment. The man he is looking up to is his boss, Robert H Patten.

nous ring for Wilmington.

Bender stated that the proponents of the bill, in not notifying Wilmington of the proposed revisions, had broken faith with the Town of Wilmington, and he urged that the bill be killed. The passage of the bill, he said, would have a devastating effect on Wilmington.

Bender said he was willing to sit down with Representative Hatch and ready to participate in any discussion.

Rene LaRivee urged that the committee eliminate any reference to Middlesex County, and that the bill be one just for Essex County alone.

He was not opposed to Conservation, he said, as he had been instrumental in the forming of Wilmington's Conservation commission, but he was definitely opposed to House 1115, which takes away the right of Wilmington to govern its own territory.

Wilmington will have but one vote, LaRivee said 'and imagine the chance Wilmington will have with that!'

Stanley Webber of the Wilmington chamber of Commerce was opposed. The impact on the Wilmington economy, he told the Committee would be almost 10%. 2% of the tax base would be lost.

Herbert Colby, Grace Drive, pointed out that Wilmington had had the foresight to plan ahead, and now was being penalized, by other communities who had only hindsight.

It was a credit, he said, to the town fathers of Wilmington that the town was so advanced, and if there had been any inkling that the Middlesex Canal would have been needed he felt that the Planning Board would have taken cognizance and not allowed all the homes to be built in the vicinity of the canal.

Revival of the canal, he said, would take '100 or more new homes'.

Danny Gillis, Chairman of the Wilmington Planning Board, reviewed the extensive planning record of Wilmington from 1955 on. He told how the industries of Wilmington were impressed by the fine work in planning, and were contributing $8000 a year to assist.

'With all this planning and effort it seems almost impossible that another group has been planning our town without our knowledge. Reference is to the Report of the Water Resources Commission which recommends the use of land in Wilmington as a water shed for down stream towns on the Ipswich River. Even though we hold membership in the Massachusetts Federation of Planning Boards, and attend all functions and seminars, at no time were we alerted to this study, nor we asked to participate. As stated, it seems impossible that we should not be offered the courtesy of knowledge of this planning.'

QUALITY EDUCATION FOR MASSACHUSETTS - A REPORT BY THE LWV

The Education Committee of the League of Women Voters will present a program on Quality Education for Massachusetts on Wednesday April 13, at 8:30 pm in the Foyer of St. Thomas of Villanova Hall.

This meeting will discuss some aspects of the Willis Report. It is important for everyone to be aware of the implications of the recommendations of this report because they suggest an extensive program to improve public education in Massachusetts. Acceptance of minimum definitions of the program will raise the costs of education in this state to a staggering sum. The implementation of the proposed program depends on what arrangements are made for financing public education.

Members of the committee will try to answer such questions as 1) Why is a 'Master Plan' for education needed? 2) What is the present status of the Willis Commission? 3) Why is education an investment? 4) What are the evidences of inequality in education? 5) What minimum standards should be established? 6) Can we afford the cost? and 7) How should we raise the money?

The meeting is open to the public. Refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

COFFEE DAY FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN APRIL 8TH

Lloyd C Bender, III in an announcement today declared Friday April 8, as 'Coffee Day for Crippled Children' in Wilmington.

He urged generous support of the Day which coffee distributors restaurant chains, hotel-motel chains and independents have set aside throughout Massachusetts to help crippled children and the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Massachusetts and their 1966 appeal.

Whereas, Massachusetts residents always have given help, opportunity and assistance to thousands of crippled children in our state, and

Whereas, there continues to be a definite need for expanded rehabilitation programs and uninterrupted services due to the changing and increasing needs of children with disabilities caused by accidents and by childhood diseases yet unconquered, and

Whereas, the Easter Seal Society believes that every child has the right to live and grow in a community which does not set him apart but welcomes him exactly as it does everyone to its privileges and responsibilities, and

Whereas, the Society has the skilled staff and rehabilitation services to help these crippled children be rehabilitated to lead happy and useful lives,

Now, therefore, I Lloyd C Bender, III do declare Friday, April 8, as 'Coffee Day for Crippled Children' and urge everyone in the community to support Easter Seal services by purchasing a Coffee Day button the week of April 1-8.

Letters

April 6, 1966

Dear Larz:

To clarify statements which appeared in an out of town paper on April 5th, pertaining to the Wilmington Special Town Meeting of Monday April 4, 1966, and for the benefit of the citizens, I did not appear before the meeting as Chairman of the Republican Town Committee, but as a taxpayer and concerned citizen of Wilmington.

I did NOT speak of the 'evils' of drink; I was merely pointing out how naive the promoters must think the people of Wilmington are when I read a news item from the Town Crier: 'Contrary to public opinion, Mr Green declared, the stadium was not dependent on sporting events for its main revenue.' Still quoting, 'National conventions, oil and steel companies, and many other groups, want to use the proposed stadium for their meetings. Many of them were holding three to ten day conventions.' '... Green also told the Town Crier that he did not see any necessity of having to sell alcoholic refreshments at the proposed stadium. Plans for any sale of beer or other liquors simply did not exist, he declared.'

I did point out to the voters that if the stadium was voted, we would not have a word to say about this, -the Legislature could give it to them. I also asked if anyone had ever attended a convention where alcoholic refreshments were not available. Again, how naive can we be!

My remarks made Monday night referring to thirty or so years ago, the Black Cat era, was a time when our police department faced real danger with gun fire with gangsters from other parts of the state who frequented this 'spot'.

With the Mafia, now being investigated for controlling sports, are we asking history to be repeated?

When Wilmington voted dry, it was not to take away the rights of people, it was because minors had been served time and time again in certain establishments.

I still stand on my statement that I am not opposed to the stadium per se, but to the way in which it has been rushed through. No hearings before civic groups were held to which the public was invited. Very little, if any, information and specifications were given to the Board of Selectmen and the Planning Board, so I have been told.

Apparently the public as a whole did not realize that by the adoption of this amendment to the Zoning By-Law, the entire General Business and Industrial Districts of Wilmington are open for speculations which could come under these categories. At no time at the Planning Board hearing, until the question was asked, did those representing the Corporation explain the breadth of this amendment which the voters were asked to adopt. The citizens looked to the town officials for leadership and guidance - this was not given.

The possibility of sewerage thru betterments still exists. This will in no way affect me, as I live on the opposite side of town. Had I not been interested in Wilmington as a whole, I would not have bothered to ask one question.

In closing, the comment made to me in the corridor after the meeting was, how sad to think that telephone calls must be made to get a quorum out to vote for schools and educational programs. Approximately five hundred attend annual Town Meetings - about seven hundred and fifty found time to vote on the stadium question.

If a $40,000,000 stadium is built without cost to the Town of Wilmington then I shall be only too happy to be the first to congratulate those who proposed it. I am one of many who believe it will never materialize.

Very truly yours
 Ruth M. Kitchener
 (Mrs Albert E. Kitchener)

Dear Larz:

Several things bothered me about the Town Meeting Monday night.

1) The attorney for the North of New Boston Realty was allowed more than the usual ten minutes without the moderator cutting him off.

2) Both the people who may have been against the stadium and those who would have liked to discuss the article more fully before the whole town were abruptly cut off after but a few minutes. There was not even a motion from the floor to end the discussion.

I went to the meeting undecided as to which way to vote. There were certain questions that I had, that had not received adequate answers.

1) Will the town have to pay part of the cost of running a sewer pipe to the stadium if the stadium's leaching fields prove inadequate? (I believe part of the area is presently under water)

2) What additional expenses will the town incur because of the stadium - additional policemen, etc?

3) By not limiting article V to the confines of the proposed stadium have we not left ourselves wide to a motley of entertainment enterprises in other areas of the town which we have done so well without in the past?

There is no doubt in my mind that Article V would be approved but we could have had our cake and tax cut too if the moderator had not been so impatient to end the discussion. Now it is up to those people in the town who are not interested in tax cuts only to propose articles for the next town meeting which will close up the serious gaps in the By Laws left by an impatient moderator. The thing that really bugs me is that this same moderator let the discussion on the leash law run ad nauseum at the last annual town meeting even there were many more articles yet to go at that time.

Up to this time I thought that the odor that permeates the high school gym was that of perspiration.

Larry Alibrandi

Lars

If you have the nerve will you print this letter. Or are you chicken!

Friends I am writing this Letter to Protest what has happened in the few weeks that I stopped my vigilance on the Dirty Polations & their friends. First what I dreaded and hoped would not happen, Did happen not only happen but was allowed to by our Dead heads in our Board of Selectmen. Bender as Chairman God Pity this town, the day will not end fast enough till he resigns or is Removed from office. His inexperience in the art of being a Human Being will cost this town plenty yet so help me it will. His action's this week was an exaplane of what is to come yet. Friends I urge to go to your other member's the Dead heads & wake them up Before it is to Late. Tell them you want them to show Life & the Courage they should have to Halt this Fool before it is to Late. Remember my Friends such people as: Hitler - Mossolini Stalin-Castro! Stop this Fool before he ruins this town & the fine work witch was done by such People as Mr. Barrows Philip Buzzell & Etc.

Yours Truly
 Felice P Vitale
 A Person who Cares!
 715 Woburn St
 Wilmington Mass

PS If your Boy will not allow you to Print it I will still have my say yet and the truth will be known by all some how.

Thank You
 Mr. Vitale

(You should have dated your letter April 1 - Ed)

(To make things clear: This letter is printed, not because of the threat, but rather because Mr Vitale signed his name, one requisite that the Town Crier always requires.

The Town Crier disagrees with practically every statement that Mr Vitale has made, except possibly the date, and that would have been better had it been April 1.

For several years Mr Vitale, who personally is a very likeable individual, has been attending the Selectmen's meetings as a 'self-elected guardian of the people'. He has been wroth with the Town Crier because it did not report his inanities.

In one of the earlier episodes he was told by the Town Crier that the Selectmen's meetings were for the Selectmen, and that visitors had no right to speak unless they had permission, and then they were to speak only briefly.

Mr Vitale paid no attention, and kept on interrupting the Selectmen's meetings. Various Selectmen, from time to time, kindly explained to the man that the type of conduct he was using was not for Selectmen's meetings, but Vitale never listened.

He once wrote to the Attorney General for an opinion on the subject, breathing fire and brimstone as he related the fact to the Selectmen.

Surprisingly he got an answer from an Assistant Attorney General, who told him that the Selectmen's meetings were for the Selectmen, and not general 'open' meetings, and that visitors could not take part in the deliberations.

At one time he was so rude, and interferred so much with the meeting that the police were called. A person who interferences with a meeting of this type may be put into jail until the meetings over, on orders of the chairman.

It was Mr. Bender who persuaded the other selectmen not to have Vitale imprisoned for the duration of the meeting.

The letter has been printed exactly as written, without change. This paper, however, reserves the right to refrain from printing more letters from Mr. Vitale. It does not propose to get into a foolish argument, of which the gentleman is capable)

Town Crier really doesn't know - but it would be interesting to find out!

The Price of Copper

The price of copper would ordinarily be expected to have little direct effect in Wilmington.

But there is one section of town in which an observer can generally note a change, when copper prices go up - and that is the Wildcat Railroad.

The Wildcat is now 'the main line' of the B&M thru Wilmington towards Lawrence and points north and it crosses both Glen Road and Salem Street, as it cuts through Wilmington.

Alongside the railroad line is a telegraph line, four or five miles of copper wire, strung to poles. And everytime the price of copper gets about 30 cents a pound and soars on towards 40 cents somebody helps himself to that wire.

We presume it is a planned operation, with a truck stopping at the Salem Street crossing, with a huge reel. Somebody cuts the wire at the Glen Road crossing, and the reel winds it up - perhaps in a few minutes, and off goes the truck with the loot.

The price of copper is quite high at the moment. Maybe there will be a truck stopping at Salem Street's Wildcat crossing, one of these dark nights.

Or possibly at Glen Road instead

Kevin will Pitch

We note that Kevin Field of School was featured in a laudatory article in the Northeastern University News, recently.

The coach of the baseball team of that University spoke of him as being 'NU's Ace Starter' as a pitcher, and the article went on to say how prominent Kevin was in last year's games, wins over Boston College, Providence and Colby.

Kevin is to pitch one of the double headers in Saturday's opener against the University of Maine.

Tom has retired

We learned just this past weekend that Tom Davis of Glen Road has retired. Tom lives in the house on top of the hill, overlooking the Wildcat Railroad, and for the past 32 years has been selling eggs to the people of Wilmington - eggs which were laid by hens living in hen-houses behind Tom's home.

32 years has been a long time, and Tom has acquired many friends.

He says he is going to tear the hen houses down, this summer. Won't have to pay taxes on them next year.

Four years ago

It was four years ago, and a week or so, that the Town Crier discovered a demure little eighth grader sitting behind his exhibit at the sixth annual Science Show, in Wilmington High School.

The Town Crier took a picture of the young man, and printed it, if our memory serves correctly. Since then he has grown, naturally, and is no longer the shy little fellow that he used to be - although one cannot describe him as being contrary to shy.

He went on to be an Honor Student in High School, and was elected to various positions with his class. He became a Junior Rotarian, and then was chosen to be the Ambassador to Japan, from the Rotary Club of Wilmington.

More recently he has been in the news as first President, and then Governor of Interact, a sort of Junior Rotary Club for High School boys. Last week his picture was in the Town Crier as the retiring Governor of Interact.

Many readers have, of course, guessed that we are writing about Don Coolidge of Lake Street.

They're right. And the reason we are spending a moment recalling the past is because we have learned this week that Don has been accepted as a student at the Mass. Institute of Technology.

Good Luck, and keep that shy smile!

already dressed, and in his car when he began the run, and also that he traveled at the rate of 55 miles an hour, he considered the Fire Department as having a 'darn good response'. 'I told Lt. Woods as much' Bender said, adding that no one wanted Fire Trucks travelling at 55 miles an hour.

Miceli was against

Mr Miceli told the Board that he had been unable to attend the hearing, that morning, in the State House, but that he had called by telephone, and had himself recorded 'Against' House 1115.

Public Records

Niles asked if any action had been taken to inform the various boards and committees of the town of the announced policy of the Selectmen requiring the keeping of voting records in accordance with the Open Meeting Law. Bender said he would find out from the Town Manager (who was absent from the meeting because of a previous commitment made six weeks ago).

Land Auction

Niles asked what preparations had been made for the public land auction which the board had been directed to hold, by the Annual Town Meeting. Bender said that the Town Counsel was 'working himself into the ground' on the project.

Mrs Drew exclaimed 'We never had the Town Counsel do it before!'

Bender replied: 'Well, I had the advantage of not knowing that!'

Niles then suggested that Bender inform the Town Counsel that he might hire assistance if necessary.

Bender then read a letter from student 'Selectman' Wesley Kobylak asking that the Selectmen do as much as possible to encourage teen-age employment in town. Bender asked Miceli to explore the subject and come up with some recommendations for a program. Micelle said he would be happy to do so.

Bender also asked the members to be thinking of what kinds of questions they wished to present to the DPW on the subject of bridges in the town, at a meeting to be held in the near future.

In the closing comment of the evening Bender commended the citizens of Wilmington for their turnout at the Tuesday hearing on the Ipswich River Watershed Hearing in the State House. The meeting was adjourned at 10 pm.

Girl Scouts Issue Promissory Note

A new kind of Promissory note is in circulation - a promise of service to the community. Issued by the Girls in the Merrimack River Girl Scout Council, the notes indicate the intention of more than 8000 Girl Scouts, ages seven through seventeen, to provide a variety of services to local hospitals old age homes, under-privileged children, and civic betterment.

This local action is part of a nationwide Promise of Service that is being made by more than three million Girl Scouts across the country in honor of the 54th birthday of Girl Scouting in the U.S.A. The theme of the celebration is 'Girl Scouting-A Promise in Action'.

Mrs Barbara Dayton, Chairman of the Baldwin Neighborhood explained: 'Last fall we asked each Girl Scout Troop to decide on a project which would demonstrate and put into action the Girl Scout Promise to do their duty to God and country, to help other people at all times, and to obey the Girl Scout laws of loyalty, honesty, courtesy, cheerfulness, kindness and thrift. Some of these projects involve service to other groups in the community and some concern personal attitudes or troop self-improvement. All truly represent 'A Promise in Action' and will be fulfilled during the troop year ending next September 1st. Typical of the Promise Projects being undertaken by troops in the Baldwin Neighborhood are: Tewksbury: Brownie Troop #20 will make bird feeders; Junior Troop #333 will collect, repair and deliver books to the Center School Library; Junior Troop #379 will collect, repair and package unusual toys, and Cadette Troop #321 will assist Jaycees-ettes in the story hour at the Tewksbury Town Hall.

Wilmington: Brownie Troop #419 will make scrapbooks from Christmas cards for hospitalized children; Junior Troop #86 will do the 10th law, in 3 parts, Junior Troop

#354 has adopted a needy family; Junior Troop #361 has pledged a conservation project, planting spruce pine seedlings in Town Park, and Cadette Troop #215 is available to the League of Women Voters in any capacity they may be used.

TOWN MEETING (From Page Four)

The two articles had the approval of the majorities of both the Planning Board and the Board of Selectmen. A brand new Finance Committee was present to endorse the recommendations of the Planning Board.

Once the first of the two amendments, the Zoning By-Law amendment, was passed by a 525 vote majority, easy passage was expected of the Building By-Law amendment. Planning Board member Austin Rounds tossed an unanticipated 'curve' into the proceedings when he questioned the legality of the article on that basis that no public hearing had been held.

Wood, brandishing a Town Crier clipping, approached Rounds, saying 'You discussed it at your hearing! It's right here if you wish to read about it'.

Rounds asked that the Town Counsel rule on whether or not the Planning Board could hold hearings on the Building By-Law.

Alan I Altman stated, in reply, that it was his understanding that no public hearing was necessary on a Building By-Law amendment.

With this objection quashed, Cutter called for a vote. A voice vote overwhelmingly carried the article.

The special town meeting began at 8:15 pm, with Selectman Bender moving Article 1, an appropriation for filing a petition in Land Court.

Kevin McKelvey of Border Avenue, spoke against the article. He contended that the property in question, near his own in South Wilmington, should not be taken to Land Court because it would exert 'considerable hardship' on owners of adjacent properties. McKelvey moved to table the motion on the article, and it was seconded.

Bender asked the Town Counsel to explain the purpose of the article. Altman said that the land, acquired by the town through tax foreclosures, must be taken to Land Court for settlement of a boundary dispute. The land, he said, would be useless until the boundaries were settled.

The motion to table lost, with only the McKelveys, father and son, voting for it. The motion on the article carried easily on a voice vote at 8:29 pm.

Article 2, a proposal for enlarging a water main, was passed over unanimously, on a voice vote on motion of Selectman Bender.

Article 3, which proposed that the Selectmen be authorized to appoint a Community Action Council Advisory Committee with the authority to plan and conduct anti-poverty programs, was moved by Bob Evans. Evans explained to the town meeting that Operation Head Start was the only program presently contemplated, but advised that the town put itself in a position to take advantage of federal monies available under the program. The article passed on a voice vote at 8:33 pm.

The otherwise uneventful warrant began to generate sparks with the consideration of Article 4, a proposal to appropriate funds for a professional study of the Fire Department.

Fred Arsenaault, Dell Drive, suggested that the fire underwriters would conduct a survey of the Department free of charge.

TM Richard Henneberger said that the fire underwriters had agreed to undertake a study of the efficiency of the Fire Department during the summer. The study proposed by the article, he said, was for a different kind of study, of personnel, rather than efficiency.

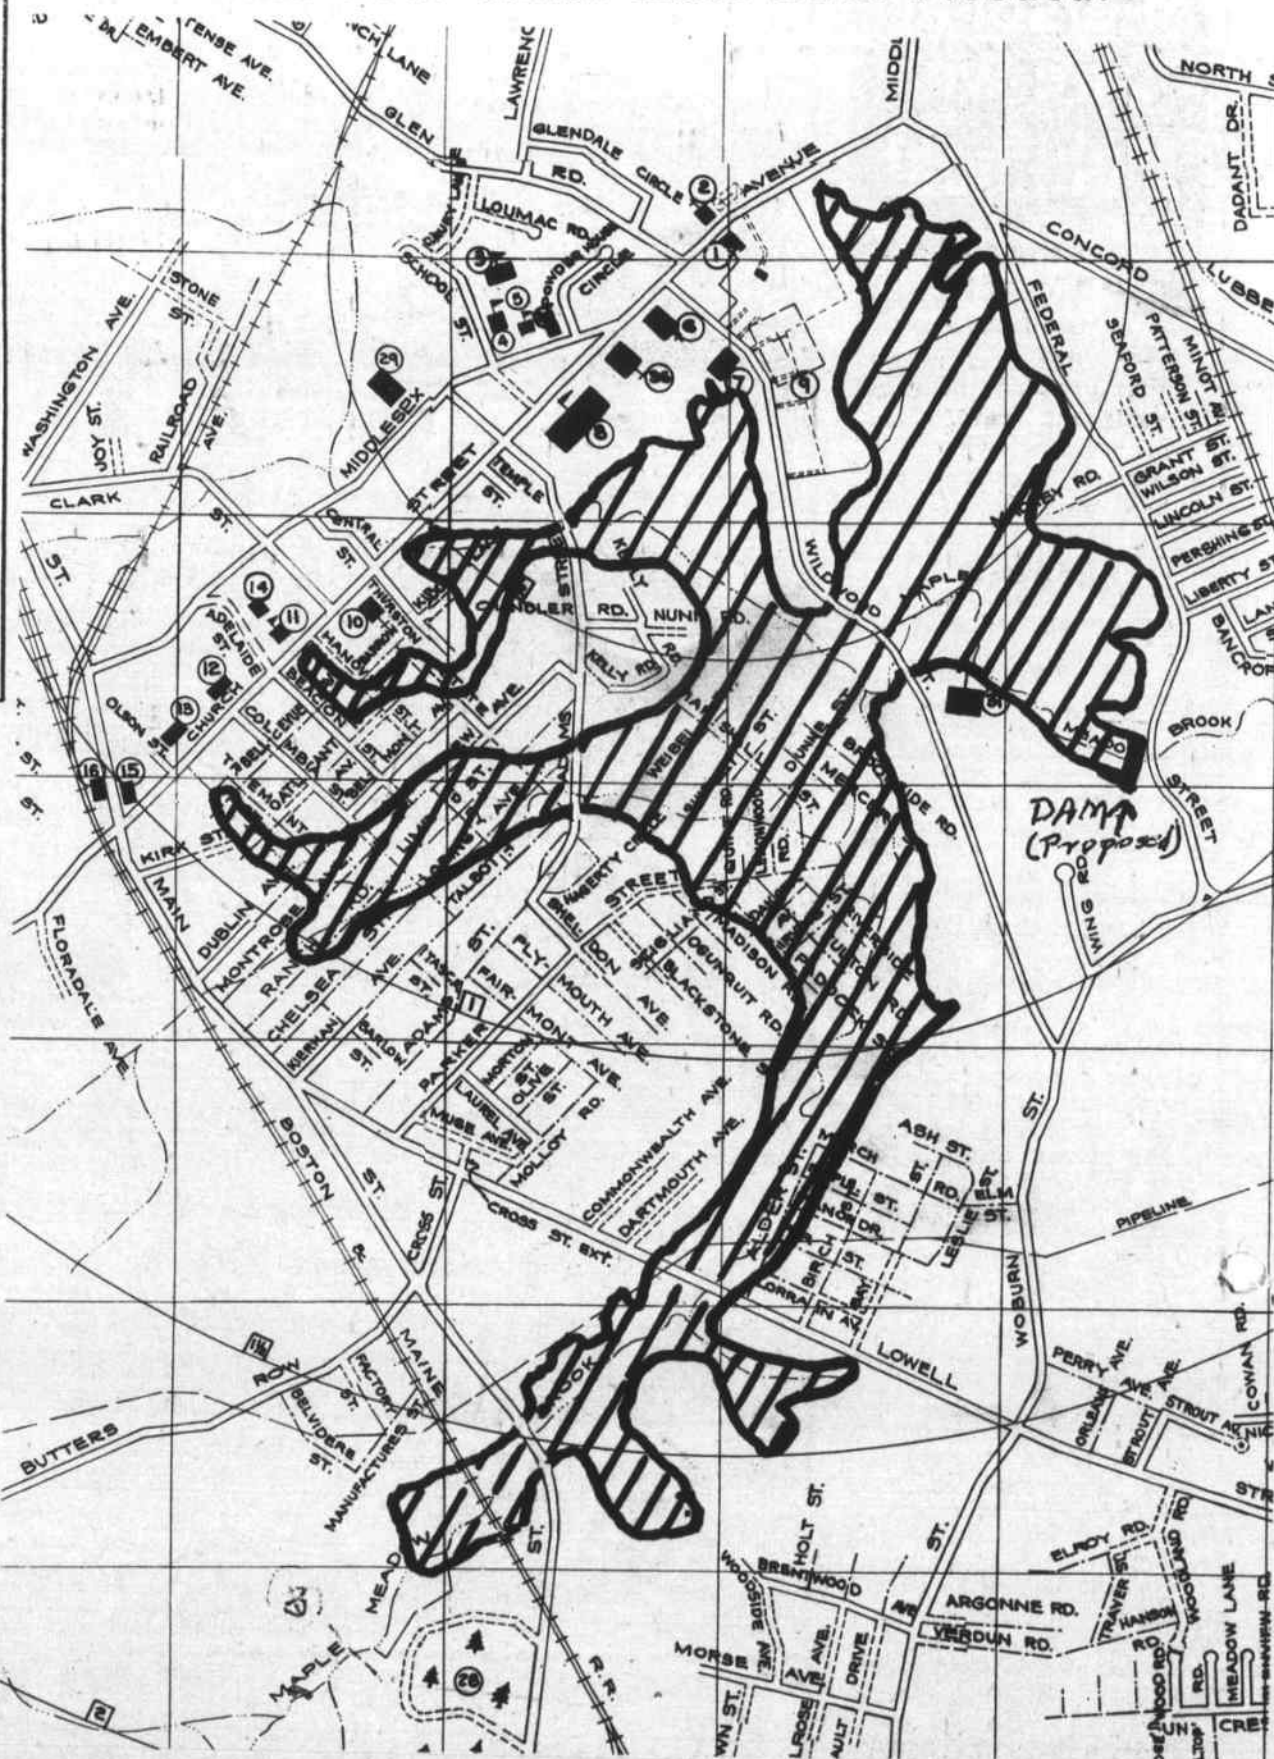

Joseph Sottile asked what the personnel study's purpose would be. Henneberger replied that it would be to study hours, training, equipment and general program for the purpose of making recommendations for keeping the Fire Department abreast of an expanding population.

Cries of 'Let's hear from the Chief' brought Fire Chief Arthur Boudrea to the microphone.

He opposed the personnel survey, contending that the fire underwriters survey was all that was necessary. His objections carried the day, as the voters went along with their Fire Chief to defeat the article by a voice vote.

The two stadium articles completed the consideration of the warrant and the meeting ended at 9:30 pm.

Would Your Cellar Have Been Flooded?

FLOODED CELLARS? Would probably be the fate of several hundred homes in the Wilmington Center area, if the proposed Federal Street dam were to be built for the proposed Ipswich River Authority. The proposal wanted a dam at Federal Street with a 79 foot elevation. The sketch shows the 80 foot elevation, approximately, being taken from a US Geological Survey Chart. An 80 foot level could certainly be expected in the springtime, if not all the year, for the area shown.

Wilmington High School, on the sketch, is building #8. The Ipswich River Bill asked for a possible total of five reservoirs in Wilmington similar to the one to be caused by the Federal Street dam.

'Mr Maurice Ahern, Chairman of Region 5A planning had no knowledge of this plan even though all the down stream towns of Gloucester, Ipswich, Manchester, Reading, etc. are all members of region 5A along with Wilmington.'

Bob Evans, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said that if any town should be unhappy it should be the one that gets all the damages.

It seems a little bit ridiculous,
Evans pointed out, that the Commonwealth should have spent money in past years to help the town, and then in 'one swoop' destroy everything.

Others from Wilmington who were recorded against the bill included Mrs Madelyn McKie, Alan
I Altman, and Mrs George Robertie
Town Manager Richard Henneber-ger spoke briefly in opposition. He was followed by Manuel S Perry of Moore Street, Leonard Barbo, Angus MacFeeley of Burnap Street,
John George of Melley Road and
Mrs William Hooper of Strout Ave

The chairman recognized the youngsters from Wilmington.

Mike Calra recorded 'myself and the whole student body against' and Wesley Kobylak said, that as a future home owner in Wilmington he was opposed. Bib Given and Ronald Wolff each offered reasons as did Fay D'Avignon, to whom Senator Wall was most flattering.
